

Sacramento State on iTunes University

Welcomes to Sac State on iTunes U, where you will be able to download podcasts related to student courses, student life and events, speeches from interesting people; and lastly, information related to the use of campus resources.

To use iTunes you will need to download iTunes from <http://www.apple.com/itunes>.

After installing it, you will need to go to <http://itunes.csus.edu> to get our podcasts. Here is how! Click to either Login to Sac State on iTunes U, or to view publicly available content click on Browse Sac State

If you are a Student/Staff/Faculty you will have more content available to you if you choose the Login to Sac State on iTunes U. The Sac State on iTunes U has the following interface.

Sacramento State (clicking will always take you to the main Sac State on iTunes page!)

Click to go to our main Sac State website.

If you are a student, a course name and number might appear in this section

Saclink link for Students, Faculty and Staff

University Program (click to enter and view podcasts available!)

Choose the University Program or Class Course you wish to enter by clicking it and a new Sac State on iTunes section will appear, which has the podcasts you wish to view!

Sacramento State (clicking will always take you to the main Sac State on iTunes page!)

Subscribe will subscribe your iTunes client to the selected course tab (see below).

If a program center or course has external links, they will be here!

This displays the current course or program you are viewing.

Get tracks will download ALL tracks on this course at once but will not subscribe you to the course tab.

Podcasts tab, below it you will find the available podcasts for download.

Icons next to the track tell you if the podcast is a video (video icon) or audio (no icon).

Get Movie/Get Song allows you to download individual podcasts.

Subscribe is the ability automatically download podcasts content without having to go to the course every time. You might want to subscribe to the Student Campus Life or the Faculty/Staff section so that you automatically get new information useful to you as a student or staff/faculty.

Once you subscribe (or download individual podcasts tracks) you will have an automatic Sacramento State folder under your Playlists section that will have the downloaded podcasts. You can click on this Playlists section to see all the podcasts from Sacramento State!

If you have any questions or comments please contact itunes@csus.edu. Thanks to Seattle Pacific University for letting us model this Quick Start after theirs!
